ZOETIS ACADEMY IS NOW LIVE

Want to enhance your knowledge to deliver the best possible care to your patients?

At Zoetis we believe in enhancing your knowledge and skills to deliver the best possible patient care and treatment outcomes. With this in mind, we are very excited to launch the Zoetis Academy.

The Zoetis Academy hosts a series of free webinars and on-demand videos covering an extensive range of topics presented by industry experts. This content has been built around feedback received from vets and is supported with free clinic tools and resources.

Now is a great time to brush up on your technical knowledge. We have made sure you can access the live sessions and library anywhere and anytime.

Head over to the Zoetis Academy now to register or catch up with the on-demand library.

What's coming up?
